

The hidden fate that lies within.....

Understanding

The hidden fate that lies within

Not caused by us nor mortal sin

This curse that seems to find its mark

Leaving victims alone ...alone in the dark

~

While family and friends may sympathize

This pain is ours, as are our cries

And although some of us may not survive

Hope still reigns while others are alive

For the miracle of life is oh so pure

held in time... as is the cure

Of those gifted talents... oh so true

Delivering hope to me and you

So lets thank God for those who gathered here in support of those who still live in fear

And through our kindness and understanding

May we help many to a softer, more hopeful landing
